

National Trails Day Volunteer Clean-up

National Trails Day is a yearly event that takes place on the first Saturday in June. Across the country, there are various events held by national and local sponsors to repair, maintain and preserve the public lands that we all know and love.

Join the Rocky Mountain Conservancy and Rocky Mountain National Park in a volunteer clean-up event to start our summer of service off strong!

Who: Anyone and everyone of all ages and abilities

What: A day of service collecting litter and beautifying Rocky Mountain National Park's Hidden Valley. Please pack a lunch and bring work gloves and trash bags, if you are able.

When: Saturday June 4, 2022, from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. We will meet at the Rangers' gazebo

Where: Hidden Valley, Rocky Mountain National Park, Colorado.

Why: To remove pounds of litter and micro-trash from the riparian ecosystem of Hidden Valley

How to Register: TBD
