

Volunteer Fire Cleanup in Grand Lake, CO

The East Troublesome Fire of 2020 burned thousands of acres of forest on the west side of Rocky Mountain National Park. It is one of the largest wildfires in Colorado statehood history, and recovery efforts are still going strong nearly two years later.

Join the Rocky Mountain Conservancy and Rocky Mountain National Park in a volunteer clean-up event to do meaningful work that matters!

Who: Anyone and everyone of all ages and abilities

What: A day of service of fuels mitigation, fire prevention, and general cleanup near the Kawuneeche Visitor Center. Please pack a lunch and bring work gloves, if you are able.

When: Wednesday July 13, 2022, from 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Where: We will meet outside the Kawuneeche Visitor Center, near Grand Lake, Colorado

Why: To aid in the recovery from the devastating fires of 2020 and mitigate the severity of future fires in the region.

How to Register: TBD

Please contact Ian Stafford if you have any questions at Ian.Stafford@RMConservancy.org