

Across

- 1 This animal's rut season in the fall is a popular sight to see
- 3 An iconic species that shows off its colors of yellow, orange, and red in the fall
- 5 A bird with a blue body, black mohawk, and white eyebrows
- 9 The only native trout species in Rocky
- 10 An area of the park that used to be a ski resort
- 11 _____ road is so popular; it requires a separate timed entry pass for half of the year
- 13 The highest continuous paved road in the United States

Down

- 2 The highest summit in Rocky Mountain National Park
- 4 The bark of this mature tree smells like vanilla or butterscotch
- 6 A long state of dormancy that bears enter for winter
- 7 A flower also known as "Old Man of the Mountain"
- 8 They have an excellent sense of smell. Don't leave food in your cars or they might break in!
- 12 You can hear their squeaks up in the alpine tundra